Introduction

The Fran Abrams Creative Writing Award (Abrams Award) is a competitive award open annually to all Montgomery County high school juniors. Established in 2010, this award uplifts the unique and authentic voices of Montgomery County high school students who demonstrate a commitment to creative writing. Fran Abrams worked tirelessly throughout her career to support the arts and humanities in Montgomery County.

Purpose

This award is available to high school juniors enrolled in a public or non-public high school in Montgomery County who demonstrate a commitment to creative writing.

The 2023-2024 Abrams Award will be presented to three recipients following a juried selection process that is based upon the merit of original submitted work and the applicant's commitment to the creative writing discipline, not financial need.

Award

The awardee who receives the highest average panel score is given an award of $1,500, a mentorship with a professional writer, and the opportunity for the awardee to read their own work during an award ceremony. In addition, two runner-up awardees will receive $750 each and a one-on-one meeting with the mentor.

The mentorship provides award winners an opportunity to learn from a professional writer, gain insights about the creative writing process and careers centered on creative writing. The schedule and scope of the mentorship will be collaboratively designed and mutually agreed upon by the awardee and the mentor.

Review Panel Process

All eligible applications are evaluated by a panel of writing professionals in an open panel review process. Panelists are chosen to represent a cross-section of professionals qualified to provide expert knowledge of creative writing and arts education. AHCMC staff make every effort to ensure that the panel is diverse in all respects.

AHCMC staff review applications for eligibility and completeness, but do not score. Staff manage all administrative and logistical tasks necessary to conduct a successful panel review, provide panelists all documentation necessary to evaluate applications effectively, inform the panel in matters of AHCMC policy and procedures, and facilitate panel meetings. Panelists are provided with the eligible applications and support materials approximately four weeks prior to the panel review meeting to allow sufficient time for their evaluation. All eligible applications are evaluated based on the following AHCMC Evaluative Criteria: Supporting Activities, Aspirations, and Originality & Creativity (described in detail below).

¹ Creative Nonfiction is the retelling of factual events and/or people in a dramatic, creative way. For the purposes of this award, research/history papers will not be accepted. If you have any questions, please contact Karen Judson, AHCMC Grants Manager, at Karen.Judson@creativemoco.com or (301) 565-3804.

The panel convenes to discuss and provide scores for each application. Panel meetings are open to applicants who wish to observe; however, applicants are not permitted to make any comments or participate in any way during the panel meeting. Applicants may not contact panelists before or after the panel meeting regarding their application review. Once the application deadline has passed and the panel has received the application for review, AHCMC staff will not forward updates from the applicant to the panel.

AHCMC grants staff use the applicant's panel scores to recommend the awardees to AHCMC's CEO. AHCMC's CEO has final authority to approve the recommended awardees.

Panel scores and comments are available to all applicants upon request after the award notification has been publicly announced. Applicants are highly encouraged to schedule a feedback appointment to review panel scores and comments by contacting Karen Judson, AHCMC Grants Manager, at Karen.Judson@creativemoco.com or (301) 565-3804.
