

Fiscal Year 2011 Grants Awarded As of March 25, 2011

General Operating Support Grants for Large Arts and Humanities Organizations $2,778,000 for July 1, 2010 – June 30, 2011

Grants to Large Arts and Humanities Organizations provide general operating support to 33 nonprofit arts and humanities organizations in Montgomery County that have annual operating expenses of over $150,000, full-time paid administrators, and an annual audit. Grants were awarded to the following organizations:

- Act Two Performing Arts, Inc., Rockville ($2,910) – Act Two is a theater company dedicated to the exploration and development of performance art with young people. Act Two produces musicals and plays performed by students in grades 3 - 12, and offers classes, summer camps and performance companies.
- Adventure Theatre, Glen Echo ($41,565) – Adventure Theatre cultivates new generations of artists by creating memorable theater experiences in an intimate and interactive environment, further building community through outreach initiatives.
- American Dance Institute, Inc., Rockville ($67,701) – American Dance Institute is a cultural community service arts center producing a diverse program of activities related to movement and dance. It is a magnet for those seeking to access and explore their creativity with professional support.
- Arts for the Aging, Inc. (AFTA), Bethesda ($20,974) – AFTA is a pioneering non-profit that provides visual, performing, literary and intergenerational arts workshops specially designed to engage older adults in health improvement and life enhancement.
- Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Inc., N. Bethesda ($349,537) – The Baltimore Symphony Orchestra provides full-season concert hall performances and outreach programming for Montgomery County residents, from elementary-aged school children to senior citizens.
- CityDance Ensemble, Inc., N. Bethesda ($44,204) – CityDance Ensemble advances the appreciation for and participation in the art of dance through excellence in performance and education through a professional dance company, free community programs and an education center.
- Class Acts Arts, Inc., Silver Spring ($35,064) – Class Acts Arts brings interactive performances, workshops and residencies representing a range of artistic disciplines and cultural traditions into the community to strengthen education, stimulate self-expression and inspire a global world view.
- CREATE Co, Silver Spring ($10,797) – CREATE's educational and therapeutic programs encourage creativity, develop art skills, foster self-confidence and provide enjoyment.
- The Dance Exchange Inc, Takoma Park ($82,033) – Liz Lerman Dance Exchange was founded in 1976. With a company whose ages span six decades, Dance Exchange's work consists of formal concerts, interactive performances, specialized residencies and professional training in community-based art.

- Friends of the Library, Montgomery County, Inc. (FOLMC), Rockville ($40,352) – FOLMC supplements and enhances Montgomery County Public Libraries by encouraging literacy, ensuring library access for all residents, funding programs and materials to reflect the changing needs of the county, and promoting librarianship.
- Germantown Cultural Arts Center, Inc. d.b.a BlackRock Center for the Arts, Germantown ($48,339) – BlackRock is a multidisciplinary arts center providing music, dance and theater performances; education programs; and gallery exhibits. BlackRock houses two indoor theaters, an outdoor stage, two dance studios, an art gallery and four classrooms.
- Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture, Glen Echo ($93,705) – The Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture manages the arts programs and activities at the Park -- including classes, children's theater, festivals, exhibitions, and social dances -- while also maintaining the Park's historic facilities.
- HST Cultural Arts, Inc., Rockville ($9,389) – Through dancing, singing, acting, and tech work, HST students experience professional-level training in the cultural arts. Last year HST produced a season of five shows including three musicals, a dance and acting revue, and a Shakespeare play.
- Imagination Stage, Inc., Bethesda ($260,694) – Imagination Stage is a multi-disciplinary theatre arts organization for young people with a mission to produce theatre and arts education programs which nurture, challenge and empower young people of all abilities.
- Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington, Rockville ($60,424) – The Arts and Culture Division coordinates the JCC's performance and arts education programs. The Division helps to fulfill the Center's mission by building community through opportunities for creative expression and Jewish culture.
- The Levine School of Music, N. Bethesda ($101,033) – Levine School of Music, the DC region's preeminent center for music education, is a welcoming community where children and adults find lifelong inspiration and joy through learning, performing, listening to and participating with others in music.
- Lumina Studio Theatre, Inc, Silver Spring ($14,180) – Lumina Studio Theatre is a production company that provides unique opportunities for young and adult actors of all levels of experience to perform classic - primarily Shakespeare - theatre in a professional setting.
- Maryland Classic Youth Orchestras, Inc., N. Bethesda ($19,925) – As the region's largest youth orchestra program, MCYO provides 400 young musicians in grades 4-12 orchestral training in one of five orchestras and additional ensembles. MCYO presents concerts at the Music Center at Strathmore & at outreach venues in Montgomery County.
- Maryland Youth Ballet (MYB), Silver Spring ($68,000) – For 37 years, MYB has provided the highest caliber of classical ballet training to prepare young dancers for a career in the performing arts. MYB also offers classes to dancers of all ages and levels, as well as quality classical ballet performances.
- Metropolitan Ballet Theatre, Inc., Rockville ($23,747) – Metropolitan Ballet Theatre, Inc. is dedicated to the education and development of dancers, in studio and on stage. MBT enriches the community with an all-inclusive approach to professional instruction, performing opportunities and outreach programs.
- Montgomery Community Television, Inc., Rockville ($107,964) – Montgomery Community Television, Inc. (MCT), also known as Access Montgomery TV (AMTV), operates two public access cable stations, AMTV 19 & 21, available in over 234,000 cable households in Montgomery County, and online streaming via their website.
- Montgomery County Historical Society, Rockville ($25,241) – The Montgomery County Historical Society (MCHS) is dedicated to encouraging the County's residents and the public at large to discover their common heritage. MCHS is the only organization to reflect the entire scope of county history.

- Musical Theater Center (MTC), Rockville ($64,674) – MTC enriches and empowers young people through performing arts education and training in the musical theater disciplines. This training is inclusive and accessible to all children despite their financial situation or health limitations.
- National Philharmonic, N. Bethesda ($267,970) – The National Philharmonic presents high-quality classical music concerts and education programs. The organization offers all kids age 7-17 free admission to regular-season concerts.
- Olney Theatre Corporation, Olney ($164,515) – Olney Theatre Center is one of the mid-Atlantic region's premier theatre companies. Olney Theatre has been presenting high-quality theatrical performances and educational programming to audiences locally and across the U.S. for over 70 years.
- Pyramid Atlantic, Silver Spring ($30,868) – The mission of Pyramid Atlantic is to promote and nurture artistic excellence through imaginative programming in the visual arts for people of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities.
- Robert E. Parilla Performing Arts Center - Montgomery College, Rockville ($66,788) – The Parilla Performing Arts Center presents a guest artist series and a children's series that offers a rich assortment of performances for every age. Additionally, the Center houses approximately 100 rehearsals and performances by community arts organizations.
- Round House Theatre, Inc., Bethesda ($185,877) – Round House Theatre's mission is to produce literary adaptations and contemporary works for the stage, conduct community-based education programs, and provide a home to diverse artists and arts organizations.
- Strathmore Hall Foundation, Inc., N. Bethesda ($337,295) – Strathmore's programming encompasses expertly-curated visual arts exhibitions; an array of music performances from local, national, and internationally recognized musicians; and curriculum-based educational concerts for public school students.
- the Puppet Co., Glen Echo ($28,100) – The Puppet Co. was established to create puppet theater, especially for children, as a synthesis of the visual and performing arts, and through interpretive programs to inform and excite the public about the potential of puppetry.
- The Washington Conservatory, Bethesda ($43,675) – The Washington Conservatory, a nationally accredited community music school founded in 1984, is located in Glen Echo Park and Bethesda, offering lessons and classes for students of all ages and levels, professional concerts, and master classes.
- Washington School of Photography, Bethesda ($17,033) – Founded in 1976, Washington School of Photography seeks to enhance the lives and careers of area residents with affordable, professional, education in photography, and by sharing exhibits, free seminars, and demonstrations of the art.
- Writers Center, Inc, Bethesda ($43,427) – The Writer's Center cultivates the creation, publication, presentation, and dissemination of literary work.

Advancement Grants for Large Arts and Humanities Organizations $300,000 for July 1, 2010 – June 30, 2011

Advancement Grants for Large Arts and Humanities Organizations are intended as supplemental funding for special purposes. For FY11, these grants are intended to assist large arts and humanities organizations in attaining fiscal stability and long-term viability. Organizations are eligible to receive between $25,000 and $200,000. Six grants were awarded as listed below:

- American Dance Institute, Inc., Rockville ($61,000) – Grant funds will be used to repair and retrofit lighting equipment which has failed in the American Dance Institute Theater and is not repairable due to obsolescence.

- CityDance Ensemble, Inc., North Bethesda ($130,000) – Grant funds will be used to re-fit and upgrade existing dance studio space at the CityDance Center at Strathmore into a world-class dance education classroom and state-of-the-art black box dance performance space.
- Class Acts Arts, Inc., Silver Spring ($25,000) – Grant funds will be used for salary support for a key programmatic position at risk for reduction in hours or elimination, Program Director for Project Youth ArtReach (PYA).
- Imagination Stage, Inc., Bethesda ($25,000) – Grant funds will be used to upgrade technological capacity by replacing an inadequate/aging server, backups, some inadequate desktops and retaining full-time hours for technical staff.
- Pyramid Atlantic, Silver Spring ($25,000) – Grant funds will be used for support of the Director of Artistic Collaboration and Outreach Position.
- The Dance Exchange Inc, Takoma Park ($34,000) – Grant funds will be used to implement several changes to the Dance Exchange facility in order to increase its usage, provide new income streams and help actualize the transition to renewed viability in a radically changed climate.

Grants to Mid-Size Arts and Humanities Organizations

$305,325 awarded for July 1, 2010 – June 30, 2011

Grants to Mid-Size Arts and Humanities Organizations are available to arts and humanities organizations with annual cash expenses above $25,000 and are intended to support the presentation of high-quality programs; the improvement of management and organizational skills; or the renovation or improvement of the spaces occupied by or equipments used by arts and humanities organizations. Organizations are eligible to receive up to $25,000 for one or more grants.

For the first half of fiscal year 2011, there were 19 awards to 18 organizations as listed below:

- Damascus Theatre Company, Gaithersburg ($7,000) – Grant funds will be used to produce a fall musical "She Loves Me." The musical will be performed at Olney Theatre Center's Multz-Gudelsky Theatre Lab in Olney, MD, and is scheduled for eight performances between November 12 and 21, 2010.
- Sandy Spring Museum, Sandy Spring ($3,050) – Grant funds will be used to upgrade Sandy Spring Museum's basic operating software.
- Glen Echo Pottery, Inc., Glen Echo ($11,000) – Grant funds will be used to fund new lighting and/or insulation improvements in three of Glen Echo Pottery's buildings to substantially improve the energy efficiency and work environment for students and visitors.
- F. Scott Fitzgerald Literary Conference, Inc., Rockville ($10,000) – Grant funds will be used to fund the F. Scott Fitzgerald Literary Conference hosted at Montgomery College.
- Bel Cantanti Opera Company, Silver Spring ($7,775) – Grant funds will be used to support an opera production.
- Artpreneurs, Inc., dba Arts on the Block, Wheaton ($22,500) – Grant funds will be used to support the Carroll Avenue Quebec Terrace Project in developing a public art/environmental design master plan to outline the parameters for temporary and permanent art projects over the next five years.
- The Bach Sinfonia, Inc., Silver Spring ($20,000) – Grant funds will be used to support Sinfonia's 2010-11 season, including a core of four to five subscription concerts, with additional performances under consideration.
- ArtStream, Inc., Bethesda ($16,000) – Grant funds will be used to support three of the five inclusive theatre companies ArtStream operates in Montgomery County.

- Chevy Chase Historical Society, Chevy Chase ($7,200) – Grant funds will be used to fund one part-time paid internship.
- ClancyWorks Dance Company, Silver Spring ($10,000) – Grant funds will be used to support management functions.
- Cambodian Buddhist Society, Silver Spring ($9,000) – Grant funds will be used to continue the repairs and upgrades to the ground floor of the Cambodian Buddhist Temple, which is the performance and classroom space for music and dance.
- Tappers With Attitude, Inc., Silver Spring ($13,500) – Grant funds will be used to continue support of the Operations Manager throughout the fiscal year.
- National Capital Historical Museum of Transportation, Inc., Colesville ($5,000) – Grant funds will be used to support the permanent exhibits, "Street Car Communities" and "Street Cars Go to the Movies," plus provides new temporary exhibits and interpretive panels for recent acquisitions displayed in Street Car Hall.
- Coral Cantigas, Inc, Rockville ($15,500) – Grant funds will be used to support the 2010-2011 concert season.
- Takoma Park Folk Festival, Takoma Park ($5,000) – Grant funds will be used to support the Takoma Park Folk Festival which showcases more than 50 individual performances on 7 stages in an all-day, family-friendly celebration.
- Friends of the Yellow Barn Studio, Glen Echo ($7,000) – Grant funds will be used to hire a new part-time Yellow Barn Manager to serve the operations side of running the building.
- Washington Revels, Inc., Silver Spring ($15,000) – Grant funds will be used to hire a full-time Production Coordinator to be responsible for handling or overseeing all "front-of-house" functions in connection with all Revels performances.

For the second half of fiscal year 2011, there were 16 awards to 13 organizations as listed below:

- Artpreneurs, Inc., dba Arts on the Block, Wheaton ($2,500) – Grant funds will be used for simplifying, streamlining, upgrading and making more secure the IT infrastructure of Arts on the Block.
- The Bach Sinfonia, Inc., Silver Spring ($4,000) – Grant funds will be used to continue the new position of Development Consultant during the period of Jan-May 2011.
- Bel Cantanti Opera Company, Silver Spring ($10,000) – Grant funds will be used to support productions of Gounod's Romeo et Juliette.
- Cantate Chamber Singers, Bethesda ($2,500) – Grant funds will be used to appoint a Composer-in-Residence for a two-year period.
- Cantate Chamber Singers, Bethesda ($3,000) – Grant funds will be used for conducting a full financial audit.
- ClancyWorks Dance Company, Silver Spring ($4,000) – Grant funds will be used for preparing and presenting a dance concert, Embracing the "AND," with two or more showings in Montgomery County.
- ClancyWorks Dance Company, Silver Spring ($9,000) – Grant funds will be used to increase the Program Coordinator from part-time to full-time.
- Coral Cantigas, Inc, Rockville ($2,500) – Grant funds will be used for renting an office space with additional locked storage cabinets at the Non-Profit Village.
- Damascus Theatre Company, Gaithersburg ($3,000) – Grant funds will be used to offset the costs associated with producing the spring musical "Little Shop of Horrors" at the Gaithersburg Arts Barn Theatre.

- Docs In Progress, Inc., Silver Spring ($13,000) – Grant funds will be used to support Documentary Dialogues, a series of public programs presented by Docs In Progress in 2011 which connects documentary filmmakers and audiences.
- Gandhi Brigade Incorporated, Silver Spring ($16,000) – Grant funds will be used to plan, produce, and evaluate Gandhi Brigade's Fourth Annual Youth Media Festival, Express Yourself, Montgomery County's first celebration of youth created media art that is planned wholly by young people.
- Gandhi Brigade Incorporated, Silver Spring ($5,500) – Grant funds will be used to upgrade Gandhi Brigade's existing web page which is built on the open source, content management system, Drupal.
- Heritage Tourism Alliance of Montgomery County, Germantown ($2,800) – Grant funds will be used to produce a commemorative map of Montgomery County at the time of the Civil War.
- Institute of Musical Traditions, Takoma Park ($14,000) – Grant funds will be used to support the first half of IMT's special 30th anniversary celebration which will take place from January – June, and features a 5-part programming plan.
- The Jazz Academy of Music Inc., Silver Spring ($20,000) – Grant funds will be used to support The Mid-Atlantic Jazz Festival to be held in February 2011 at the Hilton Rockville.
- Washington Revels, Inc., Silver Spring ($9,000) – Grant funds will be used for database software to fully support capacity building efforts and expanded community outreach.

Grants to Small Arts and Humanities Organizations

$36,700 awarded for July 1, 2010 – June 30, 2011

Grants to Small Arts and Humanities Organizations are available to arts and humanities organizations with annual cash expenses up to $25,000, and are intended to support the presentation of high-quality programs for the public. Organizations are eligible to receive up to $5,000.

For the first half of fiscal year 2011, there were awards to five organizations as listed below:

- Musical Arts International, Inc., Silver Spring ($2,500) – Grant funds will be used to fund four chamber music concerts.
- NIH Philharmonia, Bethesda ($5,000) – Grant funds will be used to assist with the Music Director's stipend.
- Olney Community Band, Olney ($2,500) – Grant funds will be used to support OCB's 2010-2011 concert season which includes entertaining and educating the County's citizens with free music concerts at community centers, retirement villages and outdoor festivals and expanding the website and purchasing new sheet music.
- Soul In Motion Players, Inc, Germantown ($4,000) – Grant funds will be used to conduct six African Dance and Drumming Classes and one performance to the residents of the Lincoln Park Community of Rockville, MD.
- Urban Artistry, Bethesda ($4,000) – Grant funds will be used to support "ORIGINS", a dance theater production celebrating the heritage of African American Dance in collaboration with actor Bus Howard, filmmaker Megan Keefe, Coyaba Dance Theater, and Tappers With Attitude.

For the second half of fiscal year 2011, there were awards to five organizations as listed below:

- Capoeira Sul da Bahia DC, Takoma Park ($4,700) – Grant funds will be used to bring the unique movements and dances of Brazil to the Silver Spring Civic center in a festival that will be free to the public. The festival will include live performances and workshops throughout the day.
- Orfeia Vocal Ensemble, Silver Spring ($2,000) – Grant funds will be used to support a performance and cultural sharing series of repertoire in the Balkan-Spehardic and Ladino traditions.
- Tagore Music Group of Greater Washington DC, North Potomac ($4,000) – Grant funds will be used to support a variety program to celebrate Nobel Laureate Poet Rabindranath Tagore's 150th Birth Anniversary.
- Takoma Park JazzFest, Inc., Takoma Park ($3,000) – Grant funds will be used to pay the musicians that will be presented during the 2011 Takoma Park JazzFest Fest.
- the solSource group, Silver Spring ($5,000) – Grant funds will be used to support the CASRAM Festival in downtown Silver Spring.

Grants to Individual Artists and Scholars

$76,290 awarded for July 1, 2010 – June 30, 2011

Grants to Individual Artists and Scholars support the work of individual artists and scholars who reside in Montgomery County. Activities funded by these grants may focus on the creation of artistic or scholarly work or the development of professional skills by an artist or scholar. Awards of up to $5,000 each were made to 20 artists and scholars as listed below:

- John Aquilino, Rockville ($2,000) – Grants funds will be used to participate in Art Basel Miami Beach.
- E. Louise Beach, Rockville ($2,000) – Grants funds will be used to create an original sequence of poems based on August Strindberg's 1900 play, "The Dance of Death." These poems will be subsequently set to music by composer Robert Pound.
- Alexander Bondarev, Silver Spring ($4,000) – Grants funds will be used to record an album of jazz songs for kids. The album will consist of ten original compositions written by Alexander Bondarev and performed by a jazz ensemble and other vocalists. The album will be distributed using free/low cost outlets.
- Laurie E. Breen, Silver Spring ($4,500) – Grants funds will be used to implement an online marketing and sales plan to promote Laurie Breen's artwork, reach a wider audience and enable online sales. A sophisticated sales-ready website will be built that utilizes a search engine optimization strategy and marketing campaign to attract and maintain customers.
- Petrena "El'tsah" Broden, Takoma Park ($3,000) – Grants funds will be used to travel to Ghana, West Africa to participate in a intensive study abroad program to explore the rich culture of Ghana, West Africa through arts and humanities with a special emphasis in West African Dance and cultural traditions.
- J. Jordan Bruns, Chevy Chase ($2,093) – Grants funds will be used to support artist supplies, musician fees, promotional materials, and facility space at Glen Echo Park for a public art event.
- Frank R. Cassel, Kensington ($5,000) – Grants funds will be used to create a CD of original songs and tunes, including original arrangements of some traditional songs, to promote Frank Cassel's music to the community as a songwriter, as well as a performer.
- Jennifer Cutting, Takoma Park ($4,000) – Grants funds will be used to complete a CD of original songs and traditional Celtic instrumental tunes for an inclusive, ecumenical celebration of the Winter Solstice.

- Immanuela Gruenberg, Potomac ($3,000) – Grants funds will be used to cover expenses of a trip to Argentina to present Gruenberg's edition & CD, lecture and perform more Schubert.
- Meagan Healy, Chevy Chase ($3,500) – Grants funds will be used to create 12 black-and-white images of Montgomery County, MD historical sites to be sold as note cards. Each image may be referenced from a site listed on HeritageMontgomery.org or elsewhere. Each card will include a brief historical note about the site along with other connections and acknowledgement.
- Ellen M. Hill, Rockville ($4,707) – Grants funds will be used to create two large-scale artworks composed of multiple bits of painted and carved wood. These works, which will incorporate botanical imagery, will hang on the wall. A woodworking expert will instruct on creating lightweight backings and jigs required to make the artworks.
- Ani D. Kasten, Takoma Park ($5,000) – Grants funds will be used to create a new series of ceramic and wood sculptures based on boat forms. The series will consist of sculptural vessels based on boat forms combining stoneware and porcelain clays with pieces of mahogany.
- Katie Dell Kaufman, Takoma Park ($5,000) – Grants funds will be used to create a body of work of wall mounted relief and free standing sculpture, that integrates encaustic collage, painting, and found materials.
- Shailaja R. Maru, Montgomery Village ($4,000) – Grants funds will be used to develop a performance “On the Temple Path” that explores the link between temple architecture, Indian philosophy, and dance using two different styles of Indian Classical dance-Bharata Natyam and Kuchipudi.
- Miriam Mörsel Nathan, Silver Spring ($5,000) – Grants funds will be used to cover the cost of framing 35 works on paper that have been completed and will be included in Miriam Morsel Nathan's first solo show. The exhibit will open September, 2010 at the Ann Loeb Bronfman Gallery of the Washington DC Jewish Community Center.
- Carrie Rose, Takoma Park ($4,500) – Grants funds will be used to write five new music compositions and create a bi-monthly concert series from September 2010 to May 2011: five concerts total. One composition will be premiered on each concert. The programs will be artfully arranged with other pieces played by the performers for whom the pieces are written, and by Carrie Rose on flute.
- Adele Schmidt, Rockville ($4,500) – Grants funds will be used to create the final cut of “Romantic Warriors”. The final version of the documentary will be 90 minutes.
- Lynn Sures, Silver Spring ($4,780) – Grants funds will be used to work at Baltimore Clayworks ceramic facility with the resident technical assistants to build, bisque-fire, and wood-fire large scale (multi-component) hand-built sculptural works on the theme of geological formations.
- Nancy J. Tarr, Chevy Chase ($2,750) – Grants funds will be used to pay for educational training in ProTools.
- Michael W. Twitty, Rockville ($2,960) – Grants funds will be used to travel to and from Baltimore, Annapolis, Washington D.C. and Williamsburg, Virginia to conduct archival research, make photocopies, conduct interviews and write drafts necessary in order to assemble the data into a solid proposal and book-length manuscript centered around a facsimile of Mrs.B.C. Howard's Fifty Years in a Maryland Kitchen, entitled “The Chesapeake Table.”

Arts Integration Residency Grants

$32,977 awarded for September 1, 2010 – June 15, 2011

Arts Integration Residency Grants support individual teaching artists trained in curriculum-based arts integration techniques who collaborate with a classroom teacher to develop an arts-integrated program for students during the school day. The program must serve underserved students during the school day in a public or non-public elementary, middle or high school located in Montgomery County.

Seven grants of up to $3,000 each were awarded for the first half of fiscal year 2011 as listed below:

- Lenore Blank Kelner ($2,542) – Grants funds will be used to work with students from Arcola Elementary School in a creative drama residency.
- Adrienne Clancy ($2,928) – Grants funds will be used to work with students from Washington Grove Elementary School in the Out of This World Residency, a program for each 5th grade class combining earth and space science together with dance.
- Adrienne Clancy ($2,783) – Grants funds will be used to work with students from JLG Regional Institute for Children and Adolescents (RICA) in the Out of This World Residency combining earth and space science together with dance for each 4th and 5th grade class.
- Suzanne Fierston ($1,747) – Grants funds will be used to work with students from Silver Spring International Middle School in the Identity Project, a program for 7th grade students on family history and personal identity.
- Ali Oliver ($2,000) – Grants funds will be used to work with students from Sargent Shriver Elementary School in a literature-based creative drama residency for all second grade students.
- Ali Oliver ($3,000) – Grants funds will be used to work with students from White Oak Middle School in a residency integrating creative drama with the 6th grade social studies curriculum.
- Ali Oliver ($2,500) – Grants funds will be used to work with students from Georgian Forest Elementary School in a social studies-based creative drama residency for the 4th and 5th grades.

Six grants of up to $3,000 each were awarded for the second half of fiscal year 2011 as listed below:

- Joanne Miller ($3,000) – Grants funds will be used to 4th grade students at Oak View Elementary on a photographic journey integrating art, science and technology.
- Joanne Miller ($3,000) – Grants funds will be used to lead high school students at Watkins Mill High on a photographic exploration of land use in their community.
- Sue Trainor ($2,100) – Grants funds will be used to work with the third graders at Broad Acres Elementary to create curriculum-based songs.
- Leila Cabib ($1,413) – Grants funds will be used in an English language learners social studies bridge class at Loiederman Middle to analyze political cartoons from the era of the Andrew Jackson presidency and create own cartoons on various issues that arose during that period.
- Adrienne Clancy ($2,997) – Grants funds will be used to work with all 5th grade classes at Wheaton Woods Elementary for the Out of This World Residency combining Earth and Space Science together with dance.
- Adrienne Clancy ($2,967) – Grants funds will be used to work with three 5th grade classes at Twinbrook Elementary for the Out of This World Residency combining Earth and Space Science together with dance.

Artists and Scholars in the Community Grants

$15,610 awarded for July 1, 2010 – June 30, 2011

Artists and Scholars in the Community Grants support a variety of arts and humanities programs that bring high quality artists and scholars to community-based audiences in the County. These grants bring the arts and/or humanities to underserved populations that have fewer opportunities to participate in programs available to the general community.

Seven grants of up to $1,500 each were awarded for the first half of fiscal year 2011 as listed below:

- Noa Baum ($1,124) – Grants funds will be used to offer six communication/storytelling workshops - Empowerment Through Story - in conjunction with Community Vision's workforce development/Job Readiness program through Interfaith Works.
- Leila Cabib ($1,072) – Grants funds will be used to engage children of all ages in a variety of hands-on cartooning and animation exercises during five one-hour sessions at The Children's Inn at NIH's Camp INNcredible.
- Cantare ($585) – Grants funds will be used to present "Fiesta! A celebration of life in Latin America," an introduction to the beautiful songs and rhythms of Latin America, to the residents at CHI Centers.
- ClancyWorks Dance Company ($1,150) – Grants funds will be used to present a dance recital and workshops designed for the senior residents of B'nai B'rith Homecrest House.
- Marcie Wolf-Hubbard ($1,500) – Grants funds will be used to facilitate a series of four art sessions for transition-age youth, ages 16 – 24, with emotional, behavioral and mental health challenges with the Montgomery County Federation of Families for Children's Mental Health and the Silver Spring Drop-In Center.
- Marcie Wolf-Hubbard ($1,072) – Grants funds will be used to facilitate a series of five art workshops in the Easter Seals of Greater Washington's Senior Adult Day Care Program.
- Marcie Wolf-Hubbard ($1,000) – Grants funds will be used to facilitate a series of six art sessions for elementary students in an after-school recreation program at the Good Hope Community Center.

Six grants of up to $1,500 each were awarded for the second half of fiscal year 2011 as listed below:

- Marcie Wolf-Hubbard ($1,500) – Grants funds will be used to facilitate art workshops for adults with mental illness at Family Services.
- Marcie Wolf-Hubbard ($1,500) – Grants funds will be used to facilitate a series of seven art sessions for elementary students in an after-school recreation program at the East County Community Center.
- ClancyWorks Dance Company ($1,500) – Grants funds will be used to for dance education classes for at-risk Boys and Girls Club of Greater Washington students.
- ClancyWorks Dance Company ($1,500) – Grants funds will be used to for a performance and three movement workshops for senior residents at Springvale Terrace.
- Anansegromma ($607) – Grants funds will be used to fund a performance with 15 year old Anansegromma, a Ghanaian duo of Kwame Ansah-Brew and Kofi Dennis at CHI Centers.
- ClancyWorks Dance Company ($1500) – Grants funds will be used to for a performance and three movement workshops at Ingleside at King Farm.